Cathedral High Will Present ‘The Music Man’ Tuesday

Cathedral high students will present their annual operetta, ‘The Music Man,’ this Tuesday at the Civic Center. The story is about a phony professor, Professor Harold Hill, who visits River City, Iowa, and can’t get his phony foot stuck in the door and can’t get it out. The story is about the town librarian; Barbara Soule, taught the other dances. The ladies of River City, Iowa, enter with a he arrival of spring and outdoor activities. Roth will participate in the style show at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, are pictured on the steps leading to the college. They are: Ernie Jean as Charlie and Bill Simon, John Larsen, and Kelly Burgess.

Cathedral’s music department, is directing the musical for the show. Among those assisting are: Mary Jo Maierle as Marian, his wife, Eulalia, by Joe Cote as Constable Locke; Bill Solich as Marcellus Washburn; Dennie Rickert as Joseph G. Hobby; and Earle Goodno as leader of the stage crew. Sister Margaret Power, Kelly Burgess, Pat Cheno, and Judy Sullivan, respectively. Among those assisting are: Mary Jo Maierle as Marian, his wife, Eulalia, by Joe Cote as Constable Locke; Bill Solich as Marcellus Washburn; Dennie Rickert as Joseph G. Hobby; and Earle Goodno as leader of the stage crew. Sister Margaret Power, Kelly Burgess, Pat Cheno, and Judy Sullivan, respectively. Among those assisting are: Mary Jo Maierle as Marian, his wife, Eulalia, by Joe Cote as Constable Locke; Bill Solich as Marcellus Washburn; Dennie Rickert as Joseph G. Hobby; and Earle Goodno as leader of the stage crew. Sister Margaret Power, Kelly Burgess, Pat Cheno, and Judy Sullivan, respectively. Among those assisting are: Mary Jo Maierle as Marian, his wife, Eulalia, by Joe Cote as Constable Locke; Bill Solich as Marcellus Washburn; Dennie Rickert as Joseph G. Hobby; and Earle Goodno as leader of the stage crew.

Ticket information is available at the school. Tickets for the show may be obtained from Cathedral High staff and students.